OVERVIEW
This practically oriented training course provides participants with opportunity to become competent in applying the knowledge, skills and attitudes associated with the safe erection and dismantling of scaffolding systems.

TARGET AUDIENCE
This course is design for construction workers who need to erect, alter and dismantle scaffolding and associated equipment.

COURSE CONTENTS
1. Basic scaffolding functions
2. Scaffolding definitions
3. Construction of scaffolds
4. Types of scaffolding
5. Reading and interpreting drawings & Schedules
6. Erection, maintenance and dismantling
7. Identification of scaffolding faults and hazards

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING
Upon completion of the course, candidates will be able to:
- Understand the techniques of erecting, dismantling and maintaining the scaffolding system.
- Choose the proper and right materials to be used for the job.
- Fix and assemble parts of the job according to the plan.
- Maintain a safe working environment and promote safe working practices.
- Develop skills on erecting the different types of scaffolding with safety and precautions.
- Acquire knowledge and information on the proper selection of scaffolding material to minimise the risk of accident.

ASSESSMENT & CERTIFICATION
The course is assessed through practical assessment. A certificate is awarded on successful completion of the course with an overall mark of 50% or over with satisfactory attendance record. Candidates failing to meet the minimum will be given second and third opportunity with a payment of BD4/- for each opportunity. A certificate of attendance will be issued to those who do not pass eventually.

COURSE DURATION
18 hours

COURSE FEES
BD 260/- per candidate covering tuition, documentation, refreshment and snacks.